

Magna Graecia University
Department of Medicina Sperimentale e Clinica "G. Salvatore"
Cattedra di Medicina Legale
Director Prof. Pietrantonio Ricci

S. C. Medicina Legale A.S.L. TO 2
Director Dr. Roberto Testi

under the sponsorship of S.I.M.L.A.

would like to announce the first symposium concerning underwater criminal investigation

H₂O Criminalistics & Pathology SYMPOSIUM

Magna Graecia University
Catanzaro, Italy

18-21 Novembre 2010

- ▶ Localization and recovery of the corpse in water environment ◀
- ▶ Decomposition processes and identification of causes and time of death ◀
- ▶ Personal identification, reconstruction of the displacement of the corpse in water ◀
 - ▶ Forensic Sciences in water environment ◀
- (limnology, entomology, molecular biology, toxicology, fingerprints, microbiology, zoology, archaeology)
- ▶ Mass disaster e case studies ◀

The Symposium invites specialists in Pathology, Law Enforcement and Forensic Science professionals as well as students of medical, forensic and natural science disciplines to participate.

Participants already include FBI Underwater Crime Scene Investigation agents and anthropologists, American and European forensic science experts who work in water environments and Italian Pathologists and Law Enforcement agents involved in water/underwater case investigations.

information and registration

www.underwatercsi.unicz.it

underwatercsi@unicz.it

+39 - 347.14.16.900

